

ARMED FORCES

Mike Luongo, son of Mrs. Michael Luongo, 16402 Wilton Pl., left last week for Air Force training at San Antonio, Texas.

Student body president at North High School last year, he spent one semester at El Camino College. While in high school he won several debate and achievement awards and was a member of the CAP.

AT SCHOOL . . . Marine Sgt. Richard F. Riegel, husband of the former Reva E. Falk of Torrance, is attending automotive mechanics school at Camp Lejeune, N.C. The course will end April 18.

Army Pvt. Harry E. Fales, 18, son of F. E. Fales, 22325 S. Main St., Torrance, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 6th Infantry Regiment in Berlin.

The exercise was held in the Grunwald forest, a 28-square mile area located in the American and British sectors of Berlin.

A gunner in the regiment's Company B, Fales entered the Army in February 1957. He completed basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash., and arrived in Europe last September.

Fales is a 1957 graduate of Narbonne High School.

IN FRANCE . . . Pvt. Glen D. Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Christensen, 2932 Evalyn Ave., and husband of the former Rebecca Whitman, 1745 Flower St., left last week for Europe where he will be stationed near Paris, France. He recently completed an eight-week training course at Fort Story, Va. Both the Army private and his wife attended Torrance High School.

Army Pvt. Theodore F. Bigley, son of Mrs. Ann M. Bigley, 24212 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, recently was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division's 326th Medical Company at Fort Campbell, Ky.

Bigley entered the Army in August 1957 and completed basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C.

The 18-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School and was employed by Knolls Construction before entering the Army.

Kenneth H. Scroggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Scroggins, of 21729 Palos Verdes Blvd., graduated from recruit training Jan. 31 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Army Pvt. David W. Darst, Lomita, is participating in maneuvers with the 39th Infantry at Fort Greely, Alaska, one of the coldest spots on the North American continent.

The maneuvers consist of simulated combat situations in which mobility on snow and training in tactics are being stressed.

Darst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Darst, 25006 Andreo Ave., is regularly assigned as a gunner in the infantry's Mortar Battery.

The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in August, 1956, and completed basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash. He attended Narbonne High School.

Lawrence E. Moncrief Jr., electronics technician seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Moncrief, of 21135 Harvard Blvd., is serving aboard the ocean mine sweeper USS Loyalty operating in the western Pacific.

While in the Far East area the Loyalty will visit ports in Japan and Formosa. The ship left Long Beach, Jan. 3.

Edmund Zepeda, apprentice petty officer second class, USN, son of Edmund Zepeda of 1003 E. 223rd St., graduated Jan. 31 from Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist company commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

A/2c Jack B. Bolton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, 22917 Anza Ave., Torrance, Calif., E Anza Ave., has been assigned to the 2347th Air Reserve Flying Center, Long Beach, as a supply clerk. His previous base was Johnson Air Base, Japan, where served with the 41st Air Division as a supplyman.

Airman Bolton is a graduate of Torrance High School, where he was active in the athletic program. While with the 2347th he will assist in the training program operated for the over 2000 active week end reservists who train at Long Beach.

Marine Reserve Capt. Alexander J. Morrison, 5313 Sunnyview St., has been ordered to 15 days active duty with the Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment at Los Alamitos Naval Air Station.

Morrison, who is attached to Marine Air Reserve Fighter Squadron 241 at Los Alamitos, requested the training duty, according to Col. Robert A. Harvey, detachment commander.

He is one of more than 500 Southern California Marine Reserves who train at the installation one week end monthly and for two weeks each summer at a marine air station.

During the 15 days, Morrison will increase his efficiency in jet aircraft operation.

RADAR TERM

Radar is a contraction of terms meaning "radio detecting and ranging" which also describes its purpose in the location of unseen objects at various ranges of distance.
